Mezzo Soprano Madilyn Crossland has a passion for engaging audiences with her versatile voice and her evocative acting. A California native, she graduated with a BM from Chapman University in 2017. She received her MM at the Peabody Institute in 2019, under the tutelage of Elizabeth Futral. She is currently serving as a Musician First Class in the United States Navy Band Sea Chanters Chorus, the Navy's premier vocal ensemble in Washington D.C. In 2018, she was a soloist and street singer in Leonard Bernstein's Mass, under the baton of Marin Alsop. In 2017, she was seen as the alto soloist in Haydn's Harmoniemesse with the Peabody Symphony Orchestra. Miss Crossland is a dedicated ensemble singer and passionate about musical outreach, performing educational operas at the Kennedy Center, Segerstrom Center, and Opera Delaware. As a songwriter and cover artist, she strives to create a unique sound and release as many of her passion projects as she can to the public.
